SUNDAY 19 MAY: Guided Walking Tour

Join us for a guided tour with Peter Barber, historian of the British Library and former President of the "Unione Ticinese London" Swiss club, to discover the Swiss heritage and Swiss historical contribution to the Capital.

The basic route will take us to and along The Strand (and the Gattis), past St Martin's in the Fields (stucco work by Ticinese) to Orange St and the site of one of the earliest Huguenot churches adopted by the Swiss community. Leicester Square follows looking at memories of the Swiss presence in Leicester House, the home of George III's parents, and of course the Swiss Centre, to Piccadilly Circus (and the Monico family).

Then up Shaftesbury Avenue to Cambridge Circus and the site of the first Swiss Chapel with perhaps a diversion to the present Swiss Church. The tour finishes at a building that formerly housed the George and 13 Cantons (of which relics remain) on Great Compton Street – one of the centres of the Swiss Community in the 19th century.

Those who can, will then say their good byes and have a little bite to eat and well-deserved refreshment at the Sun & 13 Cantons pub (<https://www.sunand13cantons.co.uk>).

Time: 10:00am – 12:00pm; informal lunch afterward

RSVP: Free walking tour, however the registration deadline is Friday, 10th May.
Pub lunch and refreshments paid individually at the venue.

Location: Meeting point is the Villiers St entrance of Embankment Station
(Northern, District and Circle and Bakerloo tube lines)

Registration deadline: Friday 10th May 2018
